

HOW TO PRIORITIZE COVID-19 CONTROL STRATEGIES

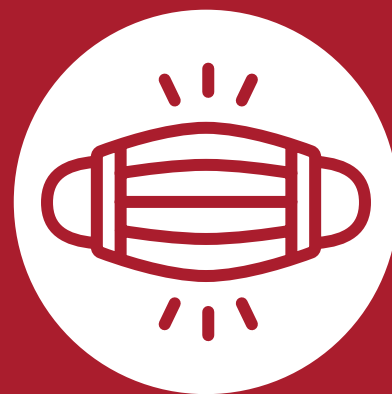

Understand How Roles Work Together

What the Employee Can Do	Prevention/ Mitigation Practice	What the Employer Can Do
Protect Yourself and Get Vaccinated	Get a COVID-19 Vaccine*	Educate, Encourage, Provide Incentives, Be an Example
Keep 6 ft. Apart	Practice Social Distancing	Educate, Implement Strategies, Verify, Be an Example
Wear, Replace, Continue Social Distancing	Wear Face Coverings	Educate, Provide, Verify Use, Be an Example, Reinforce Social Distancing
Self-evaluate, Report Onset, Stay Home if Present	Screen for COVID-19 Symptoms†	Consider Routine Screening Questionnaire, Temperature Checks
Practice	Frequent Hand-washing	Educate, Provide, Verify Use, Be an Example
Avoid	Avoid Touching Your Face	Educate, Reinforce, Be an Example
Routinely Clean and Disinfect Frequently Touched Surfaces and Other High-risk Areas	Clean and Disinfect Frequently Touched Surfaces‡	Provide PPE and Validated SOPs, Train, Verify
Be Aware of Local Hotspots for Positive COVID-19 Cases, Continue Mitigation Practices Outside of Work	Minimize Community Spread	Be Aware of Local Hotspots for Positive COVID-19 Cases, Encourage Mitigation Practices Outside of Work

*It is understood that in some locations vaccination may not currently be easily accessible for food workers.

†COVID-19 Symptoms: Temperature >100.4°F, Cough, Difficulty Breathing, Loss of Taste & Smell, Chills

‡This does not replace your established sanitation program.

Institute for Food Safety at Cornell University

United States Department of Agriculture

National Institute of Food and Agriculture