COVID-19 Decision Tree for the Food Industry

* Symptoms
  - Fever (100.4°F or above)
  - Cough
  - Shortness of Breath
  - Chest Pain
  - Tiredness, Confusion
  - Bluish lips or face
  - Runny nose
  - Sore throat
  - Lost sense of smell or taste
  - Diarrhea

 Close Contact
What is considered Close Contact:
  - Household member.
  - Intimate partner.
  - Individual providing care in a household without using recommended infection control precautions.
  - Individual who was directly coughed on.
  - Individual who spent 15 minutes or more within 6 feet or less of the positive individual that did not wear a mask to block respiratory secretions from contaminating others and the environment.

 CDC Precautions
* Employers should measure the employee's temperature and assess symptoms before the individual enters the facility every day.
* Employee should self-monitor under the supervision of their employer's occupational health program.
* The employee should wear a face mask or employer approved cloth face covering at all times while in the workplace.

---

1. Employee develops symptoms at home or at work.
   - Does the Employee have a fever (100.4°F)?
     - YES: Ask employee to contact local health provider. Contact Department of Health and follow their instructions.
     - NO: Can you work without this employee?
       - YES: Allowed to work.
       - NO: Ask employee(s) to continue self-monitoring.

2. Employee is tested for COVID-19.
   - NOT allowed to work until results come back negative.
   - Employee tests positive?
     - YES: Employee allowed to work if CDC precautions are followed for the next 14 days since the last exposure.
     - NO: Ask employee(s) to continue self-monitoring.

---

*See Symptoms

---

 See Close Contact

---

 See CDC Precautions

---

Employee allowed to return after approved by the local health provider, Department of Health or after employee has:
- NO fever for 72h (without the use of medications).
- NO other symptom when returning to work.
- 7 days or more have passed since the symptoms first began.

---

Consider shutting down the operation for 48h.
Ask employees to self-quarantine and self-monitor.